

Enriching Lives & Connecting Communities

Disadvantaged Business Enterprise Utilization

Finance
Policy No. 9045(A)

Revision Date: December 16, 2013

Policy Statement

The Richland County Recreation Commission recognizes the importance of the Recreation projects to South Carolina's Midlands. The Richland County Recreation Commission aspires to insure that its facilities and its construction projects provide the community with not only brick and mortar buildings, but also with a distribution of work and a fiscal opportunity to be shared among the various workforce, large and small, setting an example of equal opportunity for all.

Guidance:

I. Opportunities for Disadvantaged Businesses

The Richland County Recreation Commission is committed to providing opportunities for qualified disadvantaged business enterprises to perform work on various projects.

II. Sub-contractor Opportunities

The Richland County Recreation Commission strongly encourages all contractors performing work on Recreation projects to utilize qualified disadvantaged business enterprises as and where appropriate.

Note: Also refer to the Richland County Recreation Commission policy No. 9045(B) – Purchasing Procedures and Bid Requirements for more information regarding use of Disadvantaged Business Enterprises.
